Scholarship Guidelines:

WASLA scholarships and funding are awarded on application to WASLA and can only be awarded, through a merit selection process, to financial members of WASLA. Members of WASLA can only receive scholarship funding once every three years. As part of the funding agreement, successful applicants will need to write a 500 word (minimum, can be up to 1000 words) vignette recounting their experiences at the conference/PD. This mini-article will be published in ic3, WASLA's professional journal.
